Paul...

...is an accomplished musician and arranger, gifted songwriter, and captivating performer. When writing songs for his new album, SongSmith, Paul traveled coast to coast and south of the border in search of experiences that would ultimately become songs. A native of Newfoundland and a 15-year resident of the Alberta Foothills area, Paul has graced large stages, intimate coffee houses, and family kitchens alike in his travels across the country.

For Paul, the most rewarding aspect of a lifetime of music has been the opportunity to share, collect, and create stories with the people for whom he has been privileged to perform. Now, with the release of his 5th album, Paul returns to his musical roots with a work that speaks of his love of the people and places a life in music has brought him. Paul draws on his gift of storytelling as he revisits the singer-songwriter folk genre that has influenced him most.

A fixture in the southern Alberta musical community, working with such notables as Cindy Church, Nathan Tinkham, Amos Garratt and Dave Hamilton he has a regional and national following with a fan base that ranges from folk lovers to those that simply enjoy his intricate song stylings and his incredible voice.

What others say...

Paul possesses a rare combination of talent, musical taste, great songwriting and wonderful singing; when woven together with his sincere love of the music, his performances create a warmth that is truly refreshing and infectious; the real thing.

~Cindy Church

Paul is a fine tenor, an uplifting composer and...a cool dude!

~Amos Garratt

Very, very good...even excellent! I was blown away...
